

Daily Press April Newsletter

Happy Earth Day, April Fool's & Easter 2003!!

If you need me for anything, call me, Cheryl Smith, at: 951-6267

Hope your April is GREAT!

I Haven't Heard From You. I Need Your Input.

For those of you who receive Thursday newspapers, you also receive a quiz that is faxed to your school site on Thursday morning based on the day's headlines. There are three quizzes sent out: elementary, middle school, and high school. For those of you using them, are there any changes you would like to see in the format and information contained within the quiz? Call me at 951-6267 with any comments.

Calendar In Brief

Serial Story about the "First Flight/The Wright Brothers" starts on April 23rd. All teachers will be receiving papers during this time. (see flyer)

Keep your eyes open for all of the fun stuff!

• ESSAY CONTEST

We will be starting another essay contest. I will keep you abreast of the date. Watch your top sheets.

• EARTH DAY

April 22nd will be a special feature for Earth Day. All teachers will receive this feature.

WINNERS

NIE Week was a huge success. We had many teachers who entered the contest, and below is a list of the winners.

First Place

Ms. Ethridge
Desert Trails School

Second Place

Ms. Buck
Adelanto El.

Third Place

Miss Prentice
Desert Knolls El.

CONGRATULATIONS!

*NIE TEACHER OF THE YEAR
MRS. LAWHEAD*

Mrs. Lawhead has done a phenomenal job this year in all that she does. Thank you for your determination and commitment to the program.

REMINDER

Please remember to read the blue, top sheets that are found on top of your paper. This keeps us connected by allowing me to keep you up to date with upcoming activities and contests.
